HIROSHIMA & WESTERN HONSHU VEGETARIAN FRIENDLY GUIDE

HIROSHIMA / OKAYAMA / TOTTORI / SHIMANE / YAMAGUCHI

WELCOME, VEGETARIAN TRAVELERS!

As Japan welcomes more and more visitors from around the world, efforts are being made to accommodate a diverse range of dietary needs. While the number of restaurants that cater to vegetarians is growing here in the Chugoku Region, they are still rather limited, particularly outside of Hiroshima and Okayama. We hope, however, that this guide will help vegetarian travelers find delicious meat and fish-free dining options in our region and help make their stay a memorable one.

Vegetarian in Japan

It is now rare to find restaurants in Japan that are entirely unaware of vegetarian and vegan diets. Awareness that fish-based dashi (stock) rules out much Japanese cuisine for vegetarians is growing. However, the concept of vegetarian cheese and vegan sugar is still patchy. Some places may be unable to cook fried foods in separate oils

To inquire about cooking oil used:

ベジタリアン料理には専用の油を使っていますか?

Do you use separate oil to cook vegetarian food?

Bejitarian ryori niwa senyou no abura o tsukatte imasu ka?

A word about Gluten-Free

Although more restaurants in Japan are offering gluten-free options, we recommend that sufferers of Celiac Disease take special care when ordering.

LEGENDS, CULTURE AND VEGETARIAN CUISINE IN THE SAN'IN REGION

The San'in region is one of Japan's best kept secrets. With stunning scenery and ancient culture steeped in legend, it's the perfect place to escape the crowds and immerse yourself in "real" Japan. With a little planning, it is also a great area in which vegetarians can enjoy awesome Japanese cuisine in wonderful surroundings.

KIYOMIZU-DERA × KOYO-KAN

Kiyomizu-dera Temple was founded over 1400 years ago, and you will find a tranquility here unthinkable at its famous namesake in Kyoto. It isn't far from Yasugi's other attractions, but those who stay within the temple grounds may prefer to spend their entire day soaking up the atmosphere.

Koyo-kan's 'shojin' traditional Buddhist cuisine is usually prepared using fish stock, but its young and inventive chef will create beautifully presented, 100% vegan multi-course meals for those who reserve in advance. (see p.242)

Access to Kiyomizu-dera and Koyo-kan

Kiyomizu-dera Temple is 20 minutes by Yellow Bus from Yasugi JR Station to Kiyomizu bus stop, and 10 minutes walk to the temple.

YASUGI

Yasugi is home to historic buildings, traditional Japanese hand-icrafts, hot springs and the Adachi Museum of Art, famed for its award-winning Japanese garden. It also, however, boasts two excellent places to stay overnight that cater to vegetarian and vegan travelers. This makes Yasugi an excellent base for a meat and fish-free exploration of Japanese culture.

ADACHI MUSEUM OF ART X CHIKUYOU

Chikuyou is a delightful ryokan run by a young couple, literally on the doorstep of the Adachi Museum of Art and near many traditional craft studios and shops, that serves macrobiotic vegetarian meals with advance reservation. (see p.25 )

Access to Adachi Museum of Art and Chikuyou

Free shuttle buses (20min) run throughout the day between Yasugi JR Station and Adachi Museum of Art.

DAISEN × SANRAKU-SO

The 1729m Mt Daisen dominates the surrounding landscape and the temple and shrine complex which contains Daisen-ji Temple, a training base for mountain aesthetics for centuries, and Ogamiyama Shrine Okunomiya, with its impressive stone steps, is located at the start of the trail.

SANRAKU-SO

Sanraku-so offers 'shukubo' temple accommodation and huge vegan Buddhist feasts made mostly with wild mountain vegetables picked from within or near the temple grounds. (see p.23 ?)

ZEN BURGER

Whether you climb to the summit of Mt Daisen, or just enjoy exploring the temple grounds, Daisen village is a great place to escape the bustle of the lowlands for a while. Also, don't forget to try Sanraku-so's original vegan 'Zen Burger'.

Access to Daisen and Sanraku-so

It's a 30min drive between Yonago JR Station and Daisen-ji Village. Several buses a day run between Yonago JR Station and Daisen-ji Village (50min).

When transiting in Yonago, 2nd floor cafe Hibi-no-kate serves vegan lunches and dinners, a short walk from Yonago JR Station. (see p.23 1)
